South-Ops Mobilization Center

Safety is good business because we all profit

CIIMT 4
OPLIGER

Wed. Oct. 31 Nov 1, 2007
0600 - 0600

- ALL personnel are responsible for monitoring their personal work/rest cycles. Supervisor should monitor subordinates about crew work and fitness for duty.
- Monitor weather throughout shift. Changes in weather that will affect your work site must be made known to all.
- Beware of moving equipment in the entire area. Ensure that you know where you are walking because they may not.
- Communications are essential on this assignment. This incident will be operating on radio frequencies and cell phones. Use the right one for the right purpose.
- Ensure that all personnel are not resting or sleeping around the equipment.
- Remember that the public has access to the area we are working in. This will include passenger vehicles and commercial tractor-trailers.
- Remain aware to personnel we are responsible for who may wander off into areas of the airport that they have not been authorized to be in.
- Do not enter areas of building that have not been cleaned and approved for entry. There is a risk of disease or infection by airborne particulates.
- Good hydration is a must on this assignment for everyone. Remember to drink regularly for your health.
- Your best PPE for this assignment is a hat, sun shade, and sun screen. Always protect yourself.
- Beware of vehicle traffic along the route to the museum.

Human Resource Message

OSC Staging,

Good Day;

Our names are, Jan Cawthon, Dana Simpson (T) and we are the Human Resource Specialist (HRSP) assigned to this incident. We are here to help ensure a positive work environment for everyone involved with this incident.

We will be available at the Chino Base daily and will to listen to any concern or comment you may have. If either of us is unable to help.....We will do our best to find someone who can. Call us on our cell phone, the number is, 949.648.9919.

We do not have an office, so please call the cell number.

This is a unique situation, please read Team 4's expectations for all personnel. Included are additional items that need to be followed.

- No hitch hiking from the base, it is located within a ½ mile of the Chino Prison and hitch hiking is illegal.
- If you go to Prado you can not take any type of tobacco products, state law.
- The lounge at the base is off limits to all fire personnel.
- The entertainment area shuts down at exactly 2200 hours, no exception
