
Appendix A
Course Ordering and Support Information

COURSE ORDERING AND SUPPORT INFORMATION

Intermediate Incident Command System, I-300

The following items may be ordered from the National Interagency Fire Center, Great Basin Supply Office Cache in Boise, Idaho 83705. Consult the current NWCG National Fire Equipment System Catalog, Part 2: Publications for prices and ordering procedures. This publication is available online at www.nwcg.gov/pms/pubs/pubs.htm.

Each instructor will need a copy of:

NFES 2838	I-300 Instructor Guide
NFES 2840	I-300 Course Materials CD-ROM

Each student will need:

NFES 2839	I-300 Student Workbook
-----------	------------------------

Extra forms needed for Unit 6, Planning Process exercise:

These can be printed off the I-300 Course Materials CD-ROM or from the internet, www.nwcg.gov/pms/pms.htm.

NFES 1326	ICS Form 202
NFES 1327	ICS Form 203
NFES 1328	ICS Form 204
NFES 1330	ICS Form 205
NFES 1331	ICS Form 206

Optional DVD for Unit 6

NFES 2952	The Planning Process for All Risk Incidents
-----------	---

Other publications needed to present the course:

NFES 2433	ICS Position Descriptions and Responsibilities (extra copies for students or instructors)
NFES 2432	ICS Glossary, also included on the Course Materials CD-ROM (extra copies for students or instructors)
NFES 2724	Interagency Standards for Fire and Fire Aviation Operations (one for course presentation)
ICS 402-1	Field Operations Guide, FIREScope Copy can be downloaded or ordered from, www.firescope.org (one for course presentation)

Additional material and equipment needed:

- A computer with projector (LCD), speakers, projection screen, and PowerPoint presentation software for electronic presentations.
- A white board with markers or chalkboard with chalk for the instructors.
- Easel charts with paper, markers, tables, chairs, pencils, pens, and notebook paper for the students.