SAFETY MESSAGE
June 11, 2007 0700-1900

Major Hazard and Risks:
➤ Equipment Safety Maintenance
➤ Rehab Safety
➤ Complacency
➤ Check all of your equipment daily with safety in mind. Things to look for include leaking hydraulic lines, fully charged fire extinguishers and pine needles in enclosed cab filters and air conditioning units.
➤ Rehab is an important function of any fire assignment. Fire weakened trees, backing of equipment and transports, and traffic congestion, are but a few areas of concern. During your shift, identify at least one other safety concern and share it with the group during de-briefing. Lets all be safe out there.
➤ Even though this fire is winding down, this is not a time for complacency. Please remain focused on your assignment and maintain your situational awareness. Everyone has done an excellent job with safety on this incident. Don't Stop Now!!

STANDARD FIREFIGHTING ORDERS

1. Keep informed on fire weather conditions & forecasts

Scattered isolated thunderstorm development is expected this afternoon.

RED FLAG WARNING

Drier air advecting into the region with RH values below 35 per cent may result in RH values reaching critical levels Monday afternoon for around 4 to 6 hours. .

A Red Flag warning means that Critical Fire Weather conditions are either occurring now or will shortly. The combination of low RH and warm temperatures will create a high fire danger and rapid fire growth potential.
